

AMER BADER

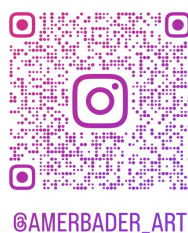

Visual Artist

Amer Bader, Born in Baghdad in 1975, is a distinguished Iraqi artist whose artistic journey began at the Institute of Fine Arts in Baghdad. There, he studied painting and graduated in 1997. He continued his education at the College of Fine Arts in Baghdad, completing his degree in 2001.

In 2010, Bader moved to the Netherlands, where he continues to live and work. He is a member of the renowned Pulchri Studio in The Hague and has held numerous solo and group exhibitions across the Netherlands, Europe, and the Middle East.

Bader's artwork is a profound reflection of his childhood memories and emotional experiences. Deeply inspired by the culture, customs, and traditions of Iraq, his paintings blend impressionistic and expressionistic elements, transforming personal longing and nostalgia into vibrant compositions. His work often explores the social and human dimensions of life, capturing both individual emotions and collective stories.

www.amerbader.com